Principal’s Report

The season is about to start, three performances of ‘Law & Order: C-rhyme and Pun-ishment’; next Monday dress rehearsal, Wednesday 10.30 am matinee and Wednesday evening at 7 pm, the evening performance. The excitement is building and our director Mrs Dickie is very pleased with the progress of the students. Mrs Petzke has sorted costumes, Mrs Arnold is finishing off the painting of the set and props, Mr Dickie is sorting microphones and lights and Mrs Tait is monitoring the ‘calm before the show’.

SAS week

This is the week we acknowledge our wonderful, hard-working SAS (School Administrative Staff) team. These great people are such a wonderful asset to our school. They are led by Mrs Barb Fox and include Mrs Simone Fox, Mrs Jenny Fruend, Mrs Bec Ware, Mr Steve Dalgliesh, Ms Nelli Loats and Mrs Kerrie O’Dwyer. These wonderful people are the backbone to our school, ask any teacher, who relies on their support and help both in and out of the classroom. Our school, students and parents are very lucky to have such a dedicated team and one that works extremely well together; we would be lost without them!!

Fathers’ Day Breakfast / Footy Colours Day

This Friday is our very special breakfast for those wonderful males in our lives. The P&C working party have been very busy coordinating and it should once again be a wonderful event. The breakfast begins at 8.15 in our school hall. Running with the breakfast, our SRC are having a fundraiser for Footy Colours Day where all the dads, students and visitors are asked to wear something to show their support for their favourite football team. The captains will collect a gold coin donation to support cancer research.

Premier Spellathon Competitors

Next Thursday 11th September, 4 of our students will travel to Deniliquin to compete in the district Premier’s Spelling Bee Spellathon competition. Good luck to Shae Fennell, Jackie Sharp-Shorney, Piper Mills and Brittney Gaertner.

Year 3/4 Excursion

Our Year 3/4 students are very excited, their excursion is 12 sleeps away and Mrs Fox is busy finalising numbers. Thank you to all parents who have returned notes and finalised payment.

Colouring In Competition

Deniliquin Ute Muster committee have sent the school a colouring in competition for the students to complete. Completed sheets need to back to the school office by Friday 12th September. If you need more copies see Mrs Fox in the office. This is a fun voluntary activity and supporting an iconic event in our area.

Happy Father’s Day

Dear

At school on Friday 5th September 2014 we are having a special Fathers’ Day breakfast for all the special Dads, Grandpas, Pops, Pa’s, Uncles or friends. It is going to be a yummy cooked breakfast and then there will be a little presentation for all the guests to watch. Breakfast starts at 8.15am and it will cost $10 for adults and $5 for children. The breakfast will be a fundraiser for the school P & C. So we really hope you can come.
